Dear Blessed Mother enlighten, guide, and strengthen us to know and to accept God's holy will in all things.

*Our Lady of Light · Spouse of the Holy Spirit, Obtain, O obtain for me the grace
Of an intimate union with Jesus!*

Foreword

We, the class of 1959, dedicate ourselves to the service of the Holy Spirit and this, our yearbook, to the memory of His most devoted servant — our late Pontiff, Pius XII.

This dedication is altogether fitting inasmuch as we owe the grace of truth and virtue to the Holy Spirit; and we owe the guidance, inspiration, and opportunity to secure grace to His Holiness, Pius XII who gave to the youth of the world not only his unstinted love and service but the golden chalice of daily communion through his liberalization of the laws of fast. In the divisions of this book, the Mercian Staff has been guided by his words and teachings. Our most fervent hope is that our lives will prove worthy of his love and offering.

It is also our most fervent hope and prayer that the Holy Spirit, Who guided and inspired our late Pontiff, will bestow that blessing on the reign of John XXIII under whose guidance we now go forth to face life. May the Holy Spirit ever be with us and may we find the same inspiration in adulthood from the reign of John XXIII as we found during our school years from his beloved predecessor.

MAY OUR FAITH, OUR HOPE, KEEP GROWING TO THEIR DESTINED PLENTITUDE
AND OUR LIVES REJOICE IN KNOWING
HEAVEN'S TRUE BEATITUDE

Activities

Student Council

STANDING: J. N. Dailey, W. Pingel, M. B. Comber, N. Calandra, L. Sawash, B. Bakula, J. Hartenbach, and F. Kerr. FRONT: M. Mink, A. K. Roberts, C. Bradzin, and J. Walters.

ON STAGE: V. Filla, M. K. McCabe, B. Tilton, J. Purl, J. Lane, B. Taylor, D. Glynn, D. Balducci, and C. Tierney. OFF STAGE: M. Mink, P. Holland, A. K. Roberts, N. Calandra, and T. Agnew.

MODERATORS: Rev. John Wurm and Sister Mary Rosaria, R.S.M.

The Student Council, the student-elected governing body of the school, directs the religious and cultural assemblies and many of the social functions, including the Junior-Senior Prom, which is the social event of the year. The officers and the representatives of each homeroom plan the school dances and provide the decorations for them.

This year the Council presented two exceptional cultural assemblies featuring a student version of "Quiz-A-Catholic" and a panel discussion on the City-County Merger.

STANDING: J. Tivoli, D. Bader, S. Beine, B. Leistner, S. Cramer, M. Syran, and J. Studeman. SEATED: M. Mink, N. Calandra, A. K. Roberts, M. Junge, L. Lapp, M. Connors, and L. Kelly.

Sacred Heart

MODERATOR: Sister Mary Emmanuel, R.S.M. Officers: T. Filla, Y. Eckstein, V. Dunman, A. Boyland.

Spreading devotion to Our Lord through Catholic Action is the purpose of the Sacred Heart Club. The members first Consecrate their homes to the Sacred Heart, make the nine first Fridays, and make a Holy Hour once a month. They then spread this devotion to others by distributing Sacred Heart badges and promoting the Apostleship of Prayer.

A. Boyland, C. Simeone, Y. Eckstein, B. George, T. Filla, and V. Dunman.

Legion of Mary

MODERATOR: Sister Mary Lizette, R.S.M. Officers: J. A. Maasen, R. Starmann, M. Thomson, and M. C. Smith.

Faithfully every week of the year Mercy students have attended Legion of Mary meetings to venerate the Blessed Mother and report the spiritual and corporal works of Mercy they have performed the previous week. Although membership is open to both boys and girls leading exemplary lives, only 12 girls participate actively in the club's devotion. This year, Our Lady of the Pillar Praesidium has included St. Joseph's Institute for the Deaf within its scope of activities.

Legion of Mary helps bring happiness to the hearts of the orphans.

Fourteen Club

M. A. Frieburghous, E. Bossolo, K. Ryon,
S. Woltz.

MODERATOR: Sister Mary Almo, R.S.M. Officers:
Marilyn Mink, Pat King, Carmela Palazzolo.

The Fourteen Club, an active charity organization with the ultimate purpose of the performance of the seven spiritual and seven corporal works of mercy, is now in its second year at Mercy. Throughout the year, its members visit the poor, ill, and lonely, with the desire to bring a little cheer into their lives. Making hand-sewn clown dolls and collecting food and clothing for needy families highlighted this year's work.

A. Prost

Members of the Fourteen Club perform the work of mercy: visiting the poor.

Stamp Club

J. Johnson, M. A. Lauterwasser.

MODERATOR: Reverend John N. Wurm
Officers: A. Lemp, U. Rudloff, N. Colandro.

"Observe Judge, Act," is the inspiring motto of the Young Christian Students of Mercy High School. Discussion of typical student problems enables club members to improve the spiritual atmosphere of the school. This year for the first time boys have shown an energetic interest in the work of the Y.C.S. and a special group was created for them.

MODERATOR: Sister Mary Calosanctius, R.S.M.

Desiring to help the foreign missions and thus spread Christ's kingdom on earth, members of the Stamp Club collect and sort cancelled stamps of any kind. This financial aid helps to supply medicine, food, and religious articles to missionaries who are in need of assistance.

C. McDonald, A. Lemp, U. Rudloff, C. Ward, N. Colandro, J. Hartenbach, F. Kerr, R. Deckert.

K. O. D.

MODERATOR: Rev. Raymond F. Rustige.

The Knights of Demasthenes sponsor the dramatic activities of the school and strive to promote interest in and enthusiasm for drama in all its phases. "The Music Man" highlighted the K.O.D. trip to Chicago.

The annual K.O.D. musical, "Speak of the Devil," closed the curtain on another entertaining year of theatrical achievement.

TOP: M. Ferris, T. Hunt, and M. B. Plein.

MIDDLE: P. Garrity, D. Moehlman, J. Marshall, S. O'Gorman, K. McAndrew, and R. Starmann.

Members of the K.O.D. leave on their Chicago trip.

Library Guild

MODERATOR: Sister Mary Immaculata, R.S.M.

P. Cline, C. Simon, J. Voccoro, R. L'Ecyer, E. Greenfield.

C. Bowdern, M. Peloquin, S. Sonder, J. Simon, A. Stoverink, J. Kessels.

Completing its tenth year at Mercy, the Students' Library Guild is privileged to have one of its members, Renee L'Ecyer, serve as Vice-President of the St. Louis Library Guild. Members are required to attend four book reviews a year. By helping others who use the library, they themselves become acquainted with numerous books previously unknown to them.

MODERATOR: Reverend Raymond F. Rustige, J. Banzon, D. Nolte, L. Keltly.

C. I. S. L.

The Catholic Interscholastic Speech League, which has been a source of experience for many aspiring speakers, is composed of five sections: extemporaneous, original, non-original, radio, and humorous. Those who participate in speech activities learn to be confident in their expression of Catholic ideals and viewpoints.

TOP: J. Jung, D. Horton, S. Smith, and R. Haberstrah.

BOTTOM: The Advanced Orchestra plays for all music assemblies.

Music Department

Glee Club

MODERATOR: Sister Mary Ellen, R.S.M. Officers: J. Sturgis, I. Scheidle, C. Staverink, and R. Bataitis.

Through its special programs, such as the St. Patrick's Day assembly, the Music Department endeavors to bring pleasure to music lovers. The boys' quartet; the freshman, sophomore, and mixed choruses; and the orchestra offer to students an opportunity to perform while they study music. Dedicated to Our Lady, the Girls' Glee Club takes part in the Spring Festival, the Christmas program, and such outside activities as entertaining at the Little Sisters of the Poor.

P. Waggaman, E. Keleman, J. P. Naylor, and J. Stuart.

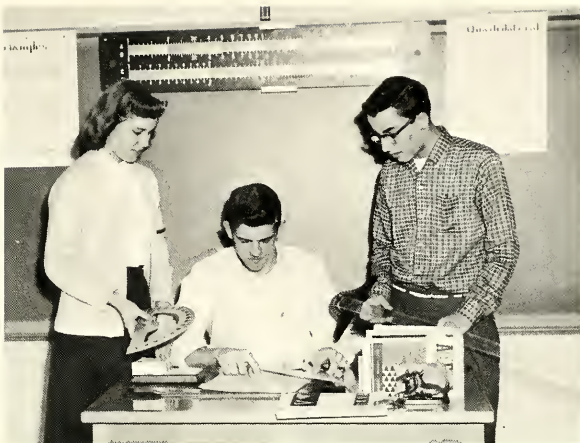

LEFT: M. Mason, R. Bataitis, I. Scheidle, J. Sturgis, and C. Staverink.

Math Club

MODERATOR: Sister Mary Emmanuel, R.S.M.

Officers: B. Shymonski, G. Zerego, and C. Scheidt.

The Euclidian Club offers to its members opportunities to utilize the mathematics they have learned. Solving involved problems and making geometric and algebraic charts are activities of the club. They also study the discoveries made by such men as Einstein and Euclid.

C. Scheidt, B. Shymonski, and G. Zerego.

Latin Club

MODERATOR: Sister Mary Natalie, R.S.M.

Officers: D. Nolte, B. Schneider, M. Wright, and M. Blake.

Forty-five Latin students who wish to broaden their education outside of classes make up the Latin Club. In addition to studying Roman life, staging Latin skits, and having seasonal programs the members have started a new Latin Paper, "Latin Looks," this year.

M. Blake, M. Wright, B. Schneider, D. Nolte, B. Silvey, and D. Foushee.

Exciting moment at a basketball game.

Pep Club

MODERATOR: Sister Mary Benita, R. S. M. Officers: P. Flynn, M. S. McShane, Y. Eckstein, and J. Ward.

The Pep Club strives to improve school spirit and maintain good sportsmanship by promoting attendance at sport activities and sponsoring pep rallies, homecoming events, and colors day.

At the last basketball game of the season, the Pep Club saluted each senior sportsman with a trophy in remembrance of his basketball career at Mercy. Senior cheerleaders received corsages as a vote of gratitude from the Pep Club.

Y. Eckstein, J. Ward, P. Flynn, M. S. McShane.

Pep Club cheers the team to victory.

M. Reichert, H. Barrere, J. Hedrick, P. Flynn, T. Keeshan, and D. Buhr.

"M" Club

MODERATOR: Rev. Paul Sutter

Officers: T. Keeshan, P. Flynn, H. Barrere, and M. Reichert.

The "M" Club, which originated at Mercy in 1955, has done much to unite the Varsity Lettermen and strengthen school spirit. A distinctive honor for a Letterman is the reception of his "M" pin. The "M" Club sponsoring the "Farewell Dance" late in May, has been one of the most outstanding clubs at Mercy this year and in the past.

E. Cassidy, J. Hartenbach, M. Offer, P. Dwyer, U. Rudlaff, J. Becker, and N. Shanahan.

Art Club

MODERATOR: Sister M. Elegius, R.S.M.

Through the Art Club, students are provided with an opportunity to display their artistic abilities. During their meetings, the members paint, draw, make ceramics, and create other useful and decorative articles.

With its purpose of teaching students to communicate through Catholic journalism, the Mercy Shield publishes six issues annually. The news stories, the feature and sports pages, and the editorials are written to strengthen school spirit by increasing students' interest in scholastic and extracurricular activities. Since its beginning eleven years ago, the newspaper has been rated "All Catholic" by the Catholic Press and "excellent" by the Missouri Inter-scholastic Press Association.

Mercian

MODERATORS: Sister Mary Charity, R.S.M. and Miss Audrey Giovanni

Editors: R. L'Ecuier, C. McDonald.

The Mercian, which presents to students a permanent pictorial record of the year's events, holds the ranks of "All Catholic" and "superior" as given by the Catholic Press and the Missouri Press Association. Since there are many facets of school life, the yearbook reports the complete story of the activities of the seniors, classes, clubs, and sports. A joint Mercian-Shield event was attendance at the National Catholic Press Congress, held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Varsity Football

The Varsity got off to a bad start when the Normandy Vikings trounced the Bulldogs 33—15. In Mercy's only night game of the season, the Cadets showed us little hospitality as they whipped us 20—0. Moving over to Alton, Harvey Stocker's Bulldogs hoped to break into the winning column against Western Military but had to settle for a 14—14 tie. Our next game was with the Junior Bills and were turned away 33—6.

Mercy opened league play in the Catholic Athletic Conference against last year's Champions, DuBourg, but we were stopped cold by a powerful Cavalier squad, 28—12. The Bulldogs were over-powered by the McBride Micks 25—19 and the St. Mary's Dragons 26—6 in the next two league games. The Bulldogs won their first game on November 1, when they defeated the Laboure Lions, 28—13. Keeping the same spirit the Bulldogs made it two in a row when they whipped DeAndreis, 28—14.

Varsity Basketball

In the first basketball game of the season, the team showed great spirit against Lutheran as they came from fourteen points down, only to be stopped at the gun, 62—59. Then moving to C.B.C. the Cadets controlled the boards and the game as they beat the Bulldogs, 68—47. In the following three games the Bulldogs trounced all three teams: Soldan, 59—44; Chaminade, 53—42; and Normandy, 65—41.

At the Normandy Christmas Tournament the Bulldogs stopped Pattonville, 77—49 only to lose to C.B.C. the following day, 67—57.

The Bulldogs were handed a defeat by DuBourg in the first CAC game, 62—52. In the next two league games the Bulldogs were able to defeat McBride, 45—39 and then St. Mary's Dragons stopped us, 72—66. In the fourth league game, Coach Jack Mimlitz's Bulldogs edged the Laboure Lions, 81—80 and then trounced the DeAndreis Wildcats 58—41.

Our stay in the DeAndreis Tournament and the State Regionals was short as we were eliminated in both by DeAndreis and University City.

The Bulldogs dropped the next two league games, first to DuBourg, 46—44 and then to McBride 61—52. They then went on to turn Central away with a defeat, 59—38. In the second contest with St. Mary's the Bulldogs came out one short, 58—57. Playing St. Louis U. High on February 15, the Bulldogs put up a good fight but were defeated, 65—49. In the last home game the Senior Basketball players and cheerleaders were honored: the boys received trophies; the cheerleaders, flowers; and the team, a victory over Laboure. On February 27 the Mercy fans watched DeAndreis subdue a bewitched Mercy squad, 41—40.

The "B" Team finished up with a 17—6 season. They are to be commended for their good playing and first place finish in the St. Francis Borgia Tournament.

Vaigirard and the Jesuit White House were the scene of the boys' retreats.

One of the many benefits students receive from their years at Mercy is the opportunity of making a closed retreat. During the retreat — with the help of the Holy Spirit and the retreat master — thoughts such as these are brought to light:

My indwelling God, let not Your heavenly visit be a merely passing one; but stay with me forever. Strengthen me by Your all-powerful graces against the awful possibility, which I tremble even to think about, of ever driving You out of my soul by mortal sin. Help me to make this retreat the best one I have ever made and let these thoughts and prayers stay within me forever. Let me contemplate the many facets of my spiritual life, and find peace in my mind. Help me to love thee more and more and be with thee in heaven forever.

May the closed retreat of the senior year be but the beginning of many such spiritual ventures with Christ!

Singing hymns and praying to the Blessed Mother was a daily event for the girls during their retreat at the Mercy Retreat House.

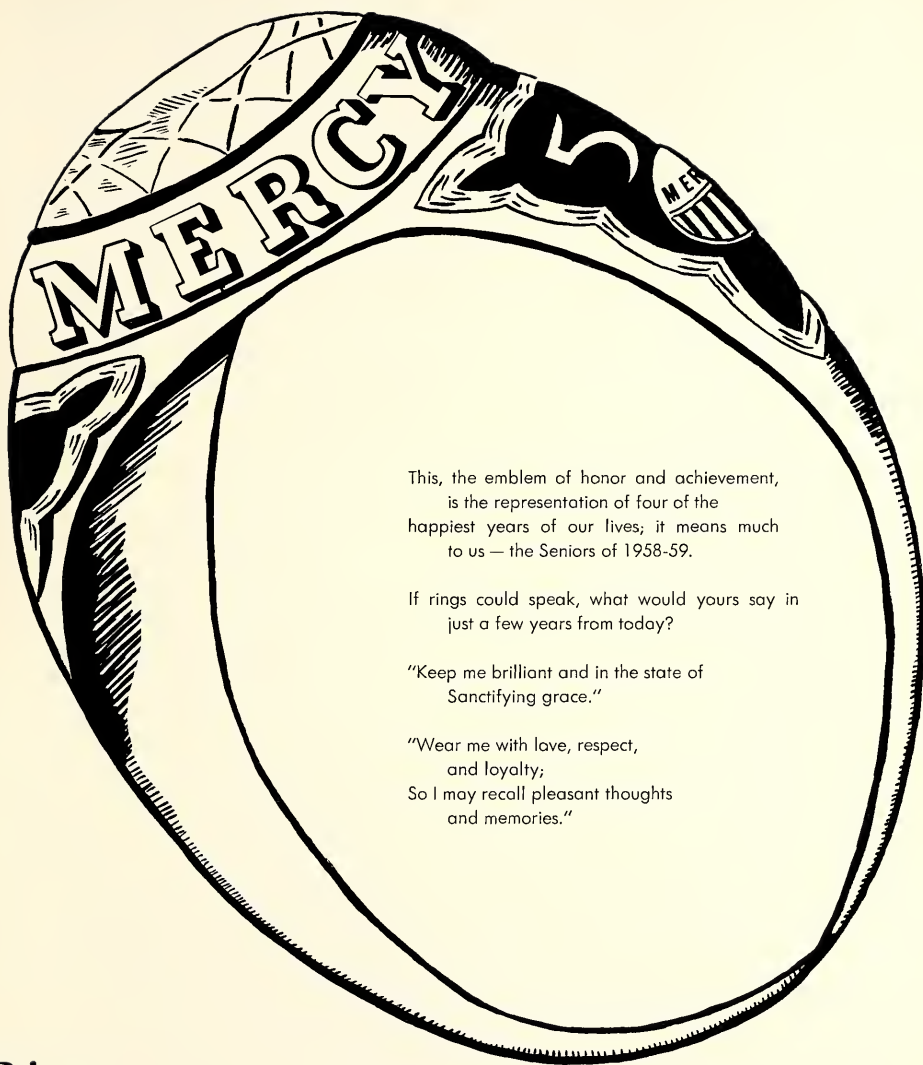

Football Dance

On the night of November 26 King Bob and Queen Anna Kay, chosen by those attending the dance, walked down the white carpeted aisle preceded by representatives of freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes, to put the finishing touch on the football season of '58.

This year's prom was unique in many ways such as the awarding of football letters to varsity football players and the colorful autumn decorations of brown and gold, setting the atmosphere for the unusual theme, "Autumn Fantasy."

The gala fanfare was brought to a climax by the descent of the royal couple and their court to dance to the sweet refrains of "Tenderly."

This, the emblem of honor and achievement, is the representation of four of the happiest years of our lives; it means much to us — the Seniors of 1958-59.

If rings could speak, what would yours say in just a few years from today?

"Keep me brilliant and in the state of Sanctifying grace."

"Wear me with love, respect,
and loyalty;
So I may recall pleasant thoughts
and memories."

Ring Day

How happy we were on this memorable day
Of December 11!

Be sure to make a fair exchange
for this ring you cherish.

Present

"Nuts in May"

On February 8 & 10, our senior class staged its annual production, the senior play. This year's production was NUTS IN MAY, by Cornelia Otis Skinner. Thanks to Father Rustige's excellent direction, and the superb coaching of Miss Reilly, the play was an unqualified success. One of many of Mercy's plays to go "on the road," February 15, it was presented at the Mercy Sisters' Novitiate in Frankenac with success equal to its presentation at home.

NUTS IN MAY is the story of Cornelia Otis Skinner's first Broadway opening and the madcap antics of the unique characters who surrounded it. Cornelia Otis Skinner was portrayed by Sue Rudraff, her nervous husband, Alden, Dan Coad. Michael, her mischievous son, Nick Calandro.

May Queen and Prom Queen Candidates

The honor of crowning Our Blessed Lady could not go to a more deserving person than our May Queen, Miss Judy Kessels. By actively participating in the Legion of Mary for two years, Judy has given evidence of her desire to make Mary and her Son better known and loved.

A big event like the Junior-Senior Prom could not be omitted just because of a little thing as a deadline. The seniors chose Sayonora — Good-bye, as the title of their lost prom at Mercy. Candidates for queen are (L.-R.): Toni Filla, Wanda Pingel, Anna Kay Roberts, Suzanne Rudroff, and Pat King. One of them will ascend the throne on the night of the Prom, (April 10), having been chosen queen by those who attended the dance.

FLASH! Miss Antoinette Filla reigned as Queen of the Prom.

Farewell Seniors

Four years completed, now is the time
for us to bid adieu
We leave our school with thankful hearts
And precious memories, too.

We thank Almighty God for all
The wondrous things He's done,
He made our high school days a time
Of prayer, work, and fun.

We're grateful for the Christian training
The faculty did provide,
Physically, spiritually, and morally, we'll keep
These teachings as our guide.

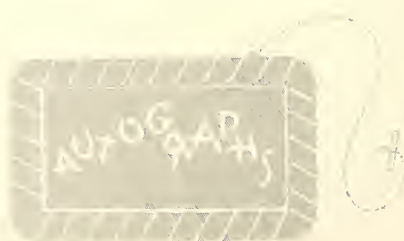

The plays, the proms, and ring day, too,
Have surely brought us happiness,
Events we now so ardently treasure
Will be memories we'll forever possess.

Mother of Mercy, intercede for us
Aid us in all our cares,
Protect and shield us from all harm
Bring us success as heavenly heirs.
